

PAOLO VISCA

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH (2020)

- Full Professor of Microbiology, Department of Scienze, Roma Tre University.
- Scientific record (since 1981) including > 250 full papers and book chapters (h Index 50; 8,200 citations, source Scopus <https://www.scopus.com/>)
- Principal investigator and coordinator of national and international research projects
- President of the Italian Society for General Microbiology and Biotechnology (www.simgbm.it)
- Member of the Board of Directors of the Italian Federation of Life Sciences (www.fisv.org)
- Member of the National Committee for Biosafety, Biotechnology and Sciences of Life (CNBBSV) of the Presidency of the Council of Ministers (<http://cnbbsv.palazzochigi.it/>)
- Director of the PhD Programme in Biomedical Sciences and Technologies, Roma Tre University

FORMER INSTITUTIONAL APPOINTMENTS

- 2018: Member of the technical committee for Biotechnology, Italian Ministry of Health
- 2011-2017: Delegate at the Federation of European Microbiological Societies (FEMS; <http://www.fems-microbiology.org/>)
- 2006-2013 e 20116-2019: Member of the Board of Directors of Roma Tre University
- 2016-2018 Secretary and treasurer of the Italian Society for General Microbiology and Biotechnology
- 2013: Project reviewer for “The Innovative Medicines Initiative” of the European Commission (www.imi.europa.eu)
- 2011-2013 e 2015-2016: selected expert for the scientific area Microbiology of the Italian Agency for the Evaluation of Universities and Research Institutes (ANVUR; www.anvur.org)
- 2011: “William Evans Visiting Professor” at the Department of Biochemistry, Otago University, Dunedin, New Zealand
- 1999-2009: Director of the experimental research unit “ Molecular Microbiology” of the National Institute for Infectious Diseases “Lazzaro Spallanzani” (Rome)